

UNION MEMORIAL
ANTI-SEGREGATION
MEETING FEB. 14

H. Booker, recording secretary; F. A. Hughes, corresponding secretary; Dr. C. S. Walden, chairman Executive Board, consisting of H. D. Burris, E. C. Morrehead, Wm. Alexander, B. H. Mason, Rev. J. H. Randall Chaplin.

Create all the sentiment possible for this meeting and let it be a popular uprising of the negro of this city to

ENTHUSIASTIC SEGREGATION MEETING

A large audience composed almost entirely of persons from various sections of the city, who are actively engaged in race advancement, listened to discussions on the program at the

and anti-segregation campaign, at West End Hall Sunday afternoon. The meeting was one of the most interesting held on the subject. Short talks were made by Mr. Parker, Dr. W. P. Curtis, Geo. H. Nathan, and others.

tion, Geo. B. Benson, Attorney Geo. L. Vaughn and Miss Kathrya Johnson. A substantial collection, to aid the fight against the measure was offered. Homer G. Phillips was chairman. Walter H. Cathrell, secretary.

The ministers of the colored congregations of the city are lined up to make a determined fight against segregation. At a recent meeting a committee was appointed to call on both the Republicans and Democrats.

The Republicans and Democratic City Committees for their support in the fight to defeat segregation.

At a meeting Thursday committees were appointed to confer with the white ministers of the city in their councils and ask their support in this fight against segregation.

The following were appointed:

To the Presbyterian Churches, Drs. L. J. Washington, S. W. Parr and Mr.

To the Baptist Churches, Dr. G. E. Stevon, J. T. Caston, and S. A. Mossey.
To the Methodist Churches, Drs. N. L. Smith, J. H. Boone and B. F. Abbott.

To the Catholic Churches, Dr. W. Sampson Brooks, Revs. M. Owens, E. W. Stewart and H. H. Harris.
To the Congregational Churches, Revs. S. B. Anderson, E. C. Cole and Dr. B. G. Shaw.
To the Christian Churches, Revs. E. L. Brooks, N. A. Mitchell, R. H. C. Sydnor and Dr. W. H. Peck.

Special committee to see Mr. Moel-er, president of the Laclede Trust Co.,
Mrs. W. Sampson Brooks, B. O. Shaw

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

Sedalia, Mo.—February 8. The following officers were elected by the Lamb for Governor Club, organized here Monday night: Dan B. Jones, president; A. R. Booker, recording secretary; F. A.

Walden, chairman Executive Board, consisting of H. D. Burris, E. C. Morewood, Wm. Alexander, R. H. Mason, Rev. J. H. Randall Chaplin.
Kansas City, February 9.—A Lamb

for Governor Club was organized here February 4. Attorney L. A. Knox was elected president.

KEYWORDS: child abuse; child sexual abuse; child sexual exploitation; child sexual abuse investigation; child sexual abuse assessment

Figure 1

Mrs. M. L. Minshew was called to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Minshew's home by her brother-in-law, Mr. Swain Nelson, as Mrs. Myrtle Kennedy were quietly married Jan. 30th.... Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Higby had as their guest Saturday and Sunday Mrs. L. C. Anderson of East St. Louis.... Mrs. H. H. McArthur was hostess to the Ladies' Aid meeting Wednesday afternoon.... Mr. Neil Bickel is sick with pneumonia.... Rev. and Mrs. Speece spent Friday afternoon visiting.

Figure 1

By Mrs. J. Bedall.

At the First Baptist Church good services were enjoyed at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The Sunday School lesson was very interesting. The Clayton Epist. Chh. was entertained by Mrs. Bedall, Feb. 5th, in their regular meeting. The afternoon was spent in selecting officers. Mrs. L. Bailey was elected as president, Miss Elam, vice president, Mrs. A. Rhodes, secretary, Mrs. J. Bedall, reporter, and Mrs. V. Bailey, treasurer. The next meeting will be Feb. 19th at the residence of Miss Virginia Bailey, 427 Carondelet street. Miss L. Rollins and nephew, St. Louis were the guests of husband, Rev. Chas. E. Rollins, Sunday.

ROUND OFF NOTE

By Mrs. M. T. James.

Sunday was mostly meeting at the First Missionary Reptist Church. Good services were enjoyed throughout the day. Rev. Simms delivered able sermons... Mr. Morrow, who has been very ill, able to sit now. Many friends pray for his recovery... Mrs. M. H. Stratton was a choir shepper Tuesday... Mastell Ware is able to be in school.

EDWARDSVILLE NOTE

By E. E. Williams.

There will be a Valentine Bazaar on Monday evening, February 14, at the Methodist Baptist Church for the benefit of the trustees. . . Mr. Simon Braden who has been ill for several months has returned to the Home Trade Company, where he is engineer. . . Sunday, Feb. 15th, will be quarterly meeting at Wesley Chapel A. M. E. Church. Rev. George Brown, pastor of Calvary Baptist Chapel at Alton, will preach at

JEFFERSON CITY NOTI

By W. C. Major

Here for several days. Mr. Frank Graham entertained a number of his old friends last week. A fine time was reported. Mrs. Flora Hill, of Lafayette, Mo., who spent five weeks in St. Louis visiting her grandson, Mr. Haskins, on Miller St. She is on vacation. She reported a fine trip and a pleasant stay. Mrs. George Burgett entertained a number of her grandnephews and friends. Mr. Burgett entertained a number of his grandnephews friends this week while on wife was on her vacation. Mr. Wm. Burton is now residing on Duval St., at Mrs. Franklin. Mr. Frank Evans is at the bedside of Mr. Blaine Jr., who is very ill. Mr. Ray Art is kept very busy, as he is the champion of Judge Revel. He is contemplating making a short visit to St. Louis. ... Mrs. H. E. Johnson is progressing nicely. Mr. Frank Graham solicits your trade for an honest deal in the meat line on Lafayette.

[illegible]

Street. Mrs. Maggie Henderson has served a paper from Washington, D. C. concerning the pension proposition for the old soldiers and sailors. The National Soldiers' and Sailors' Institute comes as Madam Heagan was at her home. It was a great treat to all who attended the exercises. . . . The speech feature at Lincoln Institute Saturday even promises to be of interest. The speaker has been invited. . . . He has he is invited. . . . Don't forget to attend the exercises. . . . The National League is taking a two weeks' vacation, owing to the quarterly meeting.
Dr. H. E. Johnson has been very business on account of the severe attack of the grippie. . . . Mr. Jno. Coe very sick on Moares Street. . . . Don't forget to attend the E. P. . . .
The next topic for Sunday
"Christianity Defined." Class No. 1 invites all visitors, Miss Nannie Goss teacher. Don't forget the revival Second Baptist Church. . . . Rev. Douglas is holding conference at the

FREDERICKTOWN NOTES

[illegible]

The pastor occupied the pulpit. Col. No. 3 with Mr. Frank Villars, as leader, took away the honors in the financial rally. "The Argus" reporter was also a visitor at Langston School Monday afternoon found the school in fine order. The principal and assistant are efficient workers and are doing splendidly well. Monday was test day yesterday. Day after tomorrow was quite interesting by the persistence of schools, who in winter put about a man for the place. It would seem if more parents would visit the school... Sunday is quarterly meeting day at Haven Chapel. All are cordially invited.... Rev. Eubanks, pastor of Selma Baptist Church, left for his home in Jackson, Monday.... Mr. M. H. Jackson, Monday.... Mr. J. B. Jackson, Monday.... Mr. J. B. Jackson, Monday....

FARMINGTON NOTES

By Miss D. F. Baker.

We have all been "dark town swells" since the recent jury trial and the electric lights out of order. It is because a case of "everybody stays home at night and father stays the town." Miss Ethel Swink is recovered from bruises received about the face and arms while indignantly protesting that Swink is not a returning to the town. The guests, Mrs. Anne Bridges, Miss M. H. Valley, Mr. David Buford, Mrs. C. Evans and Mrs. Jane Hunt are conversing. "We are sorry to know that Mr. Jos. Cunningham, of Festus, is with smallpox." Mr. Felix Poston quite busy doing the work of a hostess. "Rev. W. H. Sperlick and congregation will observe Allen E. Storing again." Mr. Reynolds is a school Rev. Reynolds to his university and St. Louis.

Mrs. returned from Crystal City Saturday, reporting a splendid visit. Mr. Sare Ammonette had a pleasant surprise in store for her when she was taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. Sare Ammonette, Monday. She spent the night with her mother Mrs. L. Mr. Chas. Baker won the flag in a book that was awarded for running the fastest mile in the city. The Birmingham was the guest of Mrs. Bridges at Swink Settlement Sunday afternoon. — Mrs. Ernie Mathis, of Birmingham, has been elected to the position of president of the of great repute. They have ready as pupils. — At the M. E. Church Sunday will be a picture-taking time for the members of the church and their commutation to Lincoln and New York City. — Mrs. T. Washington, Mastersville and Alonza Kennedy, are well again. — Mrs. Kate Cuyne was in Birmingham Sunday afternoon. — Mrs. Adie Jones, who has been in the hospital for several weeks. — Now is the time to get your money's worth, because the reporter failed to get your value in the items. — Dianne the editor. Send a statement to the editor. — The reporter failed to acknowledge it. The reporter believes in a "square deal." The reporter says, "Put up your hammer." Know

By Geo. C. Anderson

The students of Lincoln High School have begun the publication of a school journal. The publication will be in magazine form and contain about 100 pages.

The union Sunday-school contest closes this week with unabated interest. St. holds first place, St. Paul Baptist second, and St. John A. M. E. Zion third. The effect can plainly be seen that by all of the Sunday-schools have had full attendance, rain or shine, etc., snow.

The theatrical outlook on the Sidis is on the qui vive. Lately we been treated with some mighty shows. The Smith-Bright players, three nights and then Morgan's stunts came. They opened last night. The show is under the efficient management of Mr. J. E. Johnson, former Flak Jubilee singer. The panty is composed of Boston Webbs, Sam Good, comedians; Robert Edwards a tenor of exceptional ability; A. Prince, juggler and hoop manipulator; Walter Jackson, baritone; and M. Sophie and Callie Bassette, sopranos. The orchestra consists of Walter Johnson, H. B. Rose, J. A. Shackelford, C. Williams, Steve DeWaine and Professor Gustav Turner. They are booked

Prof. M. V. Lucas announces the review class for those who expect to take the examination for teachers has been started at the school, 19th Bond Ave. The instruction is free and all are invited to attend.

The revival season has commenced at East St. Louis. The Macedonia has closed their meeting with success and now they have gone to St. Paul B. Church where a great revival is

A petition to vote on prohibition

—————

By Miss H. N. Joutte

Last Wednesday at 11 o'clock the general services of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. E. C. Church were held at the A. M. E. C. Church with Rev. M. S. Smith officiating. Thursday at 10 o'clock the funeral services of Mrs. Lottie Lee were conducted from the A. M. E. C. Church with Rev. M. S. Smith officiating. Saturday at 10 o'clock the funeral services of Mrs. C. W. Cole officiating. Sunday at 10 o'clock the funeral services of Mrs. C. W. Cole were held at the A. M. E. C. Church a large number of friends were present. The services were held at the A. M. E. C. Church a large number of friends were present. The services were held at the A. M. E. C. Church a large number of friends were present.

tion services were in good condition, and Pastor Cole seemed in good condition. ... At A. M. E. Church excellent services were enjoyed throughout the day and two conditions were made to the church. ... On Sunday, February 13, the A. M. E. Church will celebrate the 16th annual of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Allen. Special sermons will be preached at 11 a. m. and at 3, Prof. J. S. Cobb will address the young people. ... Saturday night, Feb. 12, the Home Missions Concert Club will present a one-act comedy, entitled, "Taking Sam's Picture" at Jackson Baptist Church. Admission 10 cents. Mr. Russell Deberry and Mr. B. X. Arthur are the conductors. They hope to meet a large crowd in Jackson. ... Miss F. E. Nichols, one of

Discussion

By M. T. C.

Mrs. J. L. Johnson, a teacher in this School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her husband, who is pastor of the A. B. Church and also operates one of the leading barber shops at Enid, Okla. Mrs. Johnson has been all around since Wednesday morning, and her nieces, Miss Rosamond and Mable Trimell, arrived from Fort Smith, Ark., an extended visit. Mr. Samuel Webb, a prominent business man and one of the best mechanics in the city, and his mother, Madame O. Telleferro, of M. T. Johnson and Mary P. Crowell are attending the Teachers' Association, in Oklahoma City, Okla., and will be back here on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, of Omaha, Neb., who were here Wednesday night, were very much the home of Mrs. and Mrs. T. E. Wooten. Mrs. Lena Jackson was home from a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Wooten, owing to the unpleasant weather and only a few were present. An enjoyable evening was reported, however. Miss Jane Eater, who slipped and fell on the stairs, is recovering. Mrs. J. C. Sprinzel asked, Little Lena Edwards of 3242 Laclede Ave., St. Louis, Mo., attending school here, is developing a natural artist and continues to be

1000

By Mrs. C. Tinnon

Mr. J. W. Ealey, who is agent for book on the life of Booker T. Washington, has proved himself to be the one for the business. . . . Rev. J. Lennard occupied the pulpit for Rev. E. F. F. who has been confined to his home several days. Rev. Lennard pronounced soothing sermons. . . . Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tinnon are on the sick list. Mr. Milton Minor, who has been spending a few days in Mt. Vernon on business, has returned home. . . . Mrs. J. Hunter, of this city, departed this at Tulsa, Okla. . . . In spite of the element weather a large crowd witnessed the rhetorical exercises of Miss E. Prof. H. W. Robbins, of the College of Miss Freda Bohace, D. W. P. and Mrs. H. V. Wallace, D. W. P.

Continued on page 6

[illegible]

